Designated Fund Information

A designated fund with The Signatry is used for designating gifts to a single ministry or charity. To learn more about designated funds, visit thesignatry.com.

Most designated funds include the organization and the donor's name in the fund name. (ie. The Jane Smith First Baptist Church Designated Fund). Unless you choose to remain anonymous, the name of the fund will be used in grant correspondence.

*Charity must be recognized and qualified as a tax-exempt organization and a public charity or private operating foundation under Sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, contributions to which are tax deductible under Sections 170(c) and 170(b)(1)(A) of the Code. The Signatry may, in its sole discretion, close the designated fund and distribute the assets to another charity. For example, this will happen if the designated charity ceases to qualify to receive grants under the Code or The Signatry User Agreement (available online at thesignatry.com/agreement).

INVESTMENT OPTIONS

The balance of a donor advised fund at The Signatry is held in our money market fund for easy access for grant recommendations. Additionally, you can recommend that a portion of the donor advised fund balance be invested. Investment options include The Signatry's biblically responsible investment pools and the option to recommend a financial advisor to manage the fund's investment.

Funds will be invested in the money market pool if no options are selected.

Option 1: Money Market

Please keep the balance of the donor advised fund in The Signatry's money market fund.

Option 2: Biblically Responsible Investment Pools

Please have a team member of The Signatry contact me about investing a portion of the donor advised fund balance in biblically responsible investment pools.

Option 3: Advisor Managed Account (AMA)

If you have selected another option above, you do not need to recommend a financial advisor.

I recommend the advisor listed below to manage a portion* of the balance of the donor advised fund at The Signatry.

The Signatry requires all funds with AMAs to maintain the lesser of 10% of the total grantable value of the fund or one quarter's worth of historical or anticipated grant recommendations in The Signatry's money market fund for grant processing.*

Acknowledgment

By signing below, I, the undersigned donor:

1. Certify that, to the best of my knowledge, all information I have provided is accurate and I will notify The Signatry promptly of any changes;
2. Understand that all assets held in a designated fund at The Signatry are The Signatry's property and subject to The Signatry's exclusive legal control;
3. Understand that funds granted from a designated fund can be used only for charitable purposes and not for the benefit of a donor or donor advisor or for any other purpose conferring impermissible private benefit;
4. Acknowledge that my capacity as a donor is advisory in nature and that The Signatry has the sole and exclusive authority and discretion to invest and disburse all assets in a designated fund;
5. Acknowledge that I have read and agree to this Application and The Signatry User Agreement.
